CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LVIII—JULY-DECEMBER, 1943

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAC, The Commission on Citizenship of the, 324
AAP, Standards for School Physicians Proposed by the, 255
AASA, The First Regional Conference of the, Seattle, January 10–12, 452
AATC, and the NSC Co-operate to Promote Safety Education, 275; Addresses a Resolution to the AAU on Teacher-Education, 420
AAUW to Promote Good Will toward Our Allies, 323
ABBOTT, E. C., Does the IQ Vary with Achievement Tests, 381
ACE, President Zook Reports on the Activities of the, R. WALTERS, 94
Adult Education, in Wartime Britain, F. A. CAVENAGH, 49; The Relation of the Labor Unions to, in Britain, M. STARR, 109; New Courses in, at Hunter College, 301
AFT, The Chicago Meeting of the, 156
AGARD, W. R., Freshman Forum at Wisconsin, 477
"Air-Age Education Research," 420
ALA, International Relations Office of the, 36; American Aid in Foreign-Library Rehabilitation Urged by the, 85
ALLEN, J. E., Another Explanation of the Times Test Findings, 238
ALLEN, J. S., New York Colleges in Wartime, 428
Allied Youth, Inc., 230
American, School of the Air, CBS, Returns October 11, 86; The Chicago Meeting of the, Council on Public Relations, R. F. HARLOW, 463; Vocational Association in Chicago, 494
"Americana Germanica," The Subject Union Catalogue, F. REICHMANN, 372
Antioch College Passes an Important Milestone, 497
ARCHER, C. P., Placement of 1942 Teacher-Training Graduates, 63
Armistice Day, The 3d Annual Observance of, as World Government Day, 230
Army and Navy Criticisms of Schools and Colleges, A Note on, F. S. FREEMAN, 167
ARNDT, C. O., International Universities, 370
ARROWOOD, C. F., The Scholar as Authority, 141
Art: The Negro's Contribution to Democracy Depicted in a Hampton Mural, 35
Arts, Traveling Exhibits of the Division of Graphic, 181
ASTP, The Second Nation-Wide Test for the, and the Navy V-12 Program, 252; The Quality of, Men, E. B. SACKETT, 318; Study Skills of Soldiers in, F. P. ROBINSON, 398; President Dodds Praises Army-Navy College-Training Programs, 496
Attendance, Statistics of, in American Universities and Colleges, 1943, R. WALTERS, 484
Australian, Educational Opportunities for, Soldiers, 54
Awards, The Pi Lambda Theta, for Research, 437
Axis, Postwar Pupil Experience in, Countries, G. A. COE, 177; Proposals for the Reconstruction of Education in the, Countries, 379
BAGLEY, W. C., "A History Teacher from Sauk Center," 44; The Myth of Nordic-Aryan-"Herrenvolk" Superiority, 172
Ballot, Should 18-Year-Olds Be Intrusted with the, 117
BARLIEB, C., A Wartime Revision, 93
BECKER, H. R., Literature and Psychology, 143
BELL, H. M., Youth and the Future, 314
BENGTSON, C., Amazing Publicity, 262
BENNETT, R. D., United States History in Our High Schools, 126
BIGELOW, K. W., A Note on the Educational Consequences of Population-Mobility, 75
BOLTON, F. E., The "Streamlined" Bachelor's Degree, 193
BOND, W. W., The Unique Services of the Women's Colleges in Wartime, 474
Book Week, British, October 24–30, 206
BOWLING, W. G., Understanding Latin America, 124
BRICKMAN, W. W., First Aid for the Research Worker, 312; Criticism off the Beam, 377; America in a War-Worn World, 412
Britain, Adult Education in Wartime, F. A. CAVENAGH, 49; New Developments Predicted for Postwar Education in, 69; Relation of the Labor Unions to Adult Education in, M. STARR, 109
British, Book Week, October 24–30, 206; American and, Universities Compared, 277
BROUDY, H. S., History without Hysteria, 106; The Times Test Again: A Rejoinder, 376
BRYAN, A. I., An Inter-Society Constitutional Convention, 13
BRYSON, L., Guide for German-Americans, 93
BUCHHOLZ, P. H., What Is Religious Education?, 286
Bunk and Bunker Hill, R. WITHINGTON, 305
BUNZEL, J. H., An Excursion into Sociology, 191
BUTLER, H. L., The School Library in Wartime, 217
BUTLER, R. A., Widening the World's Horizons, 417

CAA Offers Pre-Flight Examinations for High-School Pupils, 277
CAVENAGH, F. A., Adult Education in Wartime Britain, 49
CDSGS, Resolution on Postwar Education by the, 390
CHADWICK, R. D., An Old Manual for School-Board Members—Still Useful, 505
CHANCELLOR, W. E., John Leroy Clifton, 1881–1943, 211
Chaos in Education—The Liberal Arts, F. K. ELDER, 241
Childhood, A Three-Year Research Project in, and Youth Education, 495
Children, Save-the-, International Union in England, 341
Chinese Impression of American Education, 340
City Youths and Country Farms, F. B. KNIGHT, 1

CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LVIII—JULY-DECEMBER, 1943

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAC, The Commission on Citizenship of the, 324
AAP, Standards for School Physicians Proposed by the, 255
AASA, The First Regional Conference of the, Seattle, January 10–12, 452
AATC, and the NSC Co-operate to Promote Safety Education, 275; Addresses a Resolution to the AAU on Teacher-Education, 420
AAUW to Promote Good Will toward Our Allies, 323
ABBOTT, E. C., Does the IQ Vary with Achievement Tests, 381
ACE, President Zook Reports on the Activities of the, R. WALTERS, 94
Adult Education, in Wartime Britain, F. A. CAVENAGH, 49; The Relation of the Labor Unions to, in Britain, M. STARR, 109; New Courses in, at Hunter College, 301
AFT, The Chicago Meeting of the, 156
AGARD, W. R., Freshman Forum at Wisconsin, 477
"Air-Age Education Research," 420
ALA, International Relations Office of the, 36; American Aid in Foreign-Library Rehabilitation Urged by the, 85
ALLEN, J. E., Another Explanation of the Times Test Findings, 238
ALLEN, J. S., New York Colleges in Wartime, 428
Allied Youth, Inc., 230
American, School of the Air, CBS, Returns October 11, 86; The Chicago Meeting of the, Council on Public Relations, R. F. HARLOW, 463; Vocational Association in Chicago, 494
"Americana Germanica," The Subject Union Catalogue, F. REICHMANN, 372
Antioch College Passes an Important Milestone, 497
ARCHER, C. P., Placement of 1942 Teacher-Training Graduates, 63
Armistice Day, The 3d Annual Observance of, as World Government Day, 230
Army and Navy Criticisms of Schools and Colleges, A Note on, F. S. FREEMAN, 167
ARNDT, C. O., International Universities, 370
ARROWOOD, C. F., The Scholar as Authority, 141
Art: The Negro's Contribution to Democracy Depicted in a Hampton Mural, 35
Arts, Traveling Exhibits of the Division of Graphic, 181
ASTP, The Second Nation-Wide Test for the, and the Navy V-12 Program, 252; The Quality of, Men, E. B. SACKETT, 318; Study Skills of Soldiers in, F. P. ROBINSON, 398; President Dodds Praises Army-Navy College-Training Programs, 496
Attendance, Statistics of, in American Universities and Colleges, 1943, R. WALTERS, 484
Australian, Educational Opportunities for, Soldiers, 54
Awards, The Pi Lambda Theta, for Research, 437
Axis, Postwar Pupil Experience in, Countries, G. A. COE, 177; Proposals for the Reconstruction of Education in the, Countries, 379
BAGLEY, W. C., "A History Teacher from Sauk Center," 44; The Myth of Nordic-Aryan-"Herrenvolk" Superiority, 172
Ballot, Should 18-Year-Olds Be Intrusted with the, 117
BARLIEB, C., A Wartime Revision, 93
BECKER, H. R., Literature and Psychology, 143
BELL, H. M., Youth and the Future, 314
BENGTSON, C., Amazing Publicity, 262
BENNETT, R. D., United States History in Our High Schools, 126
BIGELOW, K. W., A Note on the Educational Consequences of Population-Mobility, 75
BOLTON, F. E., The "Streamlined" Bachelor's Degree, 193
BOND, W. W., The Unique Services of the Women's Colleges in Wartime, 474
Book Week, British, October 24–30, 206
BOWLING, W. G., Understanding Latin America, 124
BRICKMAN, W. W., First Aid for the Research Worker, 312; Criticism off the Beam, 377; America in a War-Worn World, 412
Britain, Adult Education in Wartime, F. A. CAVENAGH, 49; New Developments Predicted for Postwar Education in, 69; Relation of the Labor Unions to Adult Education in, M. STARR, 109
British, Book Week, October 24–30, 206; American and, Universities Compared, 277
BROUDY, H. S., History without Hysteria, 106; The Times Test Again: A Rejoinder, 376
BRYAN, A. I., An Inter-Society Constitutional Convention, 13
BRYSON, L., Guide for German-Americans, 93
BUCHHOLZ, P. H., What Is Religious Education?, 286
Bunk and Bunker Hill, R. WITHINGTON, 305
BUNZEL, J. H., An Excursion into Sociology, 191
BUTLER, H. L., The School Library in Wartime, 217
BUTLER, R. A., Widening the World's Horizons, 417

CAA Offers Pre-Flight Examinations for High-School Pupils, 277
CAVENAGH, F. A., Adult Education in Wartime Britain, 49
CDSGS, Resolution on Postwar Education by the, 390
CHADWICK, R. D., An Old Manual for School-Board Members—Still Useful, 505
CHANCELLOR, W. E., John Leroy Clifton, 1881–1943, 211
Chaos in Education—The Liberal Arts, F. K. ELDER, 241
Childhood, A Three-Year Research Project in, and Youth Education, 495
Children, Save-the-, International Union in England, 341
Chinese Impression of American Education, 340
City Youths and Country Farms, F. B. KNIGHT, 1

Classics, English Non-Classical Opinion on the Value of the, 6; The Present Status of the, in the Higher Institutions, M. M. WESTINGTON, 308
Clifton, John Leroy, 1881–1943, W. E. CHANCELLOR, 211
COE, G. A., Postwar Pupil Experience in Axis Countries, 177
College Slang, D. M. SCHULLIAN, 169
Colleges, The Survival of the, G. E. SNAVELY, 502
Conference, An Important Inter-State, at the University of Wyoming, 254; on Science, Philosophy, and Religion, 268; National, of Teacher Examiners, 390
Contest, A Prize, for Elementary-School Teachers, 159; The Third Delta Pi Epsilon, 181; The National Humane Key Award, 230
Co-operative Commission on Teacher Education Plans Meeting, 468
COREY, S. M., Should We Take Over Their Schools?, 321
COWLEY, W. H., Responsible Co-operation, 113
CREEGAN, R. F., Man's Need for Immortality, and Modern Thought, 61
Criticism off the Beam, W. W. BRICKMAN, 377
Cubberley, Ellwood P., A Biography of the Late, in Preparation, 324
CULKIN, M. L., and L. C. HANSON, Some First Steps in Developing a Love of Country, 58
Curricula: Training for Military Government in the Conquered Countries, 5; New Offerings in Colleges and Universities, 158; The University of Illinois Plans for Returning Veterans, 181; A New Program for Younger Students at Olivet College, 255; New Courses in Adult Education at Hunter College, 301
CURTIS, H. S., Education for Permanent Peace, 33; Can the Schools Train in Honesty?, 261; A Note on "Education for Permanent Peace," 505

DATER, H. M., The Mission of American Liberal Scholarship in the New World Order, 248
DAVIS, H. E., The Inter-American Program in Education, 433
DAVIS, W. C., Youth and War Work, 410
DEAN, R. B., What Has Become of the Individual-Instruction Movement?, 164
DEER, G. H., Democracy's Children, 188
Degree, That Two-Year, W. C. RUEDIGER, 92; "Streamlined" Bachelor's, F. E. BOLTON, 193
Delta Pi Epsilon, The Third, Contest, 181
DEMING, O. H., Inter-American Institutes in the United States, 350
Democracy: Some First Steps in Developing a Love of Country, M. L. CULKIN, and L. C. HANSON, 58; Policies Announced by the NEA Commission for the Defense of, 276
Democracy's Children, G. H. DEER, 188
Department of State, A New Service of the, 437
Destruction of Learning, C. H. MARVIN, 473
DILLA, G. P., The American History Situation in Few Words, 309
DONAHUE, C. A., The Institute on War and Postwar Problems of Youth Migration, 47
DOUGHERTY, N. W., Traveling Eastward, 337
DOUGLASS, H. R., A New Plan for the Education of Teachers at the University of Colorado, 216
DOYLE, H. G., Another Cliché: "On-Going," 31; "Learning Languages in a Hurry"—But Not by Miracles, 465
DRAKE, W. E., Placing the Blame for Our Ignorance of History, 42
DUNBAR, W. F., Why Our Faces Are Red: A Comment on the Times Test, 265

East and West Association, 182
Education, Mobilizes Its Midwest Forces, 5; Equalizing Public, for Negroes in Tennessee, G. W. GORE, JR., 11; Dr. Kandel on the Functions of the Humanities in Wartime, 20; Some Comments on NEA'S "Wartime Handbook for," E. H. REEDER, 28; for Permanent Peace, H. S. CURTIS, 33; More and Better, Our Greatest Hope for Peace, C. S. VAN DEUSEN, 41; Plans for Observing, Week, 1943, 54; International Bureau of, 1941-42, 69; in a Time of Crisis, G. D. STRAYER, 97; American, and "Preparedness" for the Global War, 118; Request from the U. S. Office of, 133; Present Cost of, in the Four-Year Women's Colleges, E. A. LEONARD, 174; Effective, for All an Imperative in the People's Peace, A. SAMUELSON, 198; Chaos in,—The Liberal Arts, F. K. ELDER, 241; The Aims of Higher, for Women in the United States, E. A. LEONARD, 295; Commission on Trends in, of the MLAA, 339; A Commission on the Function of Philosophy in Liberal, 362; Clarifying Analysis of the Problems of, and World Peace, 388; for Planning, N. ISRAELI, 394; The Inter-American Program, in, H. E. DAVIS, 433; Progress in the, of Teachers in the Soviet Union, E. MEDYNSKY, 478; A Three-Year Research Project in Childhood and Youth, 495; 1944 as a Centennial Year in the History of, W. C. EELLS, 501
Educational Decalog, C. E. SEASHORE, 353
EELLS, W. C., 1944 as a Centennial Year in the History of Education, 501
Egypt, Human-Relations Education in Ancient, J. B. GEISEL, 358
Eight-Year Study, A Close-Up of the, W. H. LANCELOT, 449
ELDER, F. K., Chaos in Education—The Liberal Arts, 241
ELDRIDGE, J. G., Boom in Babel at Idaho, 397
Elementary and Secondary Schools, Preliminary Report of Statistics of Private, 1940–41, 180
Elliott, President, on Understanding and Appreciating Human Freedom, 135
EMME, E. E., Effective Teaching in a Postwar World, 415
Engineer-Educators Hold Their 50th Annual Meeting, R. WALTERS, 12
England, A New Proposal for Religious Education in, 159; Save-the-Children International Union in, 341
English, Non-Classical Opinion on the Value of the Classics, 6; Calling Teachers of, 23; A Challenge about the Teaching of, in Secondary Schools, W. D. TEMPLEMAN, 264
Enrollment, When Did the Upswing in Secondary-School Begin?, 300; Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges, 1943, R. WALTERS, 484
Erpi Classroom Films, Inc., under New Ownership, 469
"Essentialism": Let's Not Throw Out the Baby with the Bath, F. A. SHAW, 123; A New Organization for Promoting, in Education, 253
Ethics and Religion: How Related?, C. LEBOUTILLIER, 131

FARLEY, B., The NEA at Indianapolis, 17
FICKE, H. S., Moses and the Ten Commandments, 349

Fire Dangers of Winter Heating of School and College Buildings, D. JOHNSON, 504
"First-Name" Mania, A. M. WITHERS, 27; Another Comment on the, I. GRAHAM, 286
FISHER, T. K., The Radio Instructors School—St. Louis University, 443
FOLEY, L., Let's Get This Language Business Straight, 244
Folly of Sealing English in a Modern Vacuum, A. M. WITHERS, 260
Food Conservation, Practical Education in, 159
Foreign-Language, Oral Command the First Objective in, Teaching, (MRS.) C. A. GARDINER, 43; Requirements in 100 Colleges—1942, J. GOSSMAN, 78; Let's Get This, Business Straight, L. FOLEY, 244; War on "Language Teaching Goes to War," A. M. WITHERS, 346; Boom in Babel at Idaho, J. G. ELDRIDGE, 397; Function of Languages in Global War, M. A. PEI, 401; Northwestern University's Language Program, 421; Intensive Language Study at the University of Southern California, H. VON HOFE, 430; "Learning Languages in a Hurry"—But Not by Miracles, H. G. DOYLE, 465; The Teaching of Portuguese Spreads to the Secondary School, 467
Foreign Languages, Emphasis on, at Cornell University, 339
Foreign Policy, School Geography and Our, W. M. GREGORY, 474
FRASER, H. R., The "Inside" Story of The New York Times Test, 82; A "Red Herring" Across the Trail of the Times Test, 190; Hugh Russell Fraser Replies to a Criticism, 504
Freedom, President Elliott on Understanding and Appreciating Human, 135
FREEMAN, F. S., A Note on Army and Navy Criticisms of Schools and Colleges, 167
Freshman Forum at Wisconsin, W. R. AGARD, 477
FRIEDENBERG, R., A High-School Senior Faces the Future, 374
FRYCKBERG, M., Scholarships for Non-Academic Workers at the University of Minnesota, 445

GARDINER, (MRS.) C. A., Oral Command the First Objective in Foreign-Language Teaching, 43
GEISEL, J. B., Human-Relations Education in Ancient Egypt, 358
Georgia's, Educationally Significant Changes in, State Constitution, 134
Germany, Academic Freedom in, E. L. JORDAN, 187
"Global Alphabet": Can Our Babel of Tongues be Systematized?, 52
GORDON, I. L., Ideas as History, 476
GORE, G. W., JR., Equalizing Public Education for Negroes in Tennessee, 11
GOSSMAN, J., Foreign-Language Requirements in 100 Colleges: 1942, 78
Grading System, Some Advantages of Abolishing the, D. E. LAWSON, 210
GRAHAM, I., Another Comment on the "First-Name" Mania, 286
GREGORY, W. M., School Geography and Our Foreign Policy, 474
Guidance: Recommendations of the Council of, and Personnel Associations, R. STRANG, 110; Human-Relations Education in Ancient Egypt, J. B. GEISEL, 358; A High-School Senior Faces the Future, R. FRIEDENBERG, 374

HAENSEL, P., Retirement at 65, 395
HAGGARD, W. W., Some Freshmen Describe the Desirable College Teacher, 238
HANSON, L. C., and M. L. CULKIN, Some First Steps in Developing a Love of Country, 58
HARLOW, R. F., Higher Education Needs Militant Public Relations, 65; The Chicago Meeting of the American Council on Public Relations, 463
HARRIS, H. M., Regional Library Service in East Tennessee, 462
Health, Inter-American Scholarships in, and Engineering, 118; Standards for School Physicians Proposed by the AAP, 255
"Hero Bonds" in the High Schools, 254
HESSER, E. G., Music Education in Wartime, 9
HICKS, C. R., More on Bifocals, 30; The New York Times Test, 311
High-School, When Are, Courses "College-Preparatory," W. H. SHOEMAKER, 212; The CAA Offers Pre-Flight Examinations for, Pupils, 277; U. S. Agencies Set Rules for Part-Time Work for, Pupils, 298; Senior Faces the Future, R. FRIEDENBERG, 374
Higher Education Needs Militant Public Relations, R. F. HARLOW, 65
History, A New and Vigorous Campaign Opens on the "U. S., Front," 3; Placing the Blame for Our Ignorance of, W. E. DRAKE, 42; The "Inside" Story of The New York Times Test, H. R. FRASER, 82; without Hysteria, H. S. BROUDY, 106; United States, in Our High Schools, R. D. BENNETT, 126; The Objectives of the New Committee on American, 134; What Teachings of the Founding Fathers Are Still Vital?, 136; versus the Social Sciences, J. M. READ, 149; A "Red Herring" Across the Trail of the Times Test, H. R. FRASER, 190; Another Explanation of the Times Test Findings, J. E. ALLEN, 238; The Mission of American Liberal Scholarship in the New World Order, H. M. DATER, 248; Can the Schools Train in Honesty, H. S. CURTIS, 261; Why Our Faces Are Red: A Comment on the Times Test, W. F. DUNBAR, 265; in the Making, S. HOSLETT, 273; Bunk and Bunker Hill, R. WITHINGTON, 305; The American, Situation in Few Words, G. P. DILLA, 309; "Violent and Unfair," E. O. SISSON, 310; The New York Times Test, C. R. HICKS, 311; On Mr. Fraser's Defense of the Times Test, W. A. STUMPF, 348; Moses and the Ten Commandments, H. S. FICKE, 349; The Times Test Again: A Rejoinder, H. S. BROUDY, 376; Portland and the Times Test, C. PERGLER, 461; Preliminary Report of the Committee on American, 506
Honorary Degrees, Foreign Scholars Share, with Americans, 4
HORNE, H. H., The Culture of Certainty, 349
HOSLETT, S., History in the Making, 273
Human-Relations Education in Ancient Egypt, J. B. GEISEL, 358
Humanities, Dr. Kandel on the Functions of the, in Wartime Education, 20; The Stanford Conference on the, E. A. ROBINSON, 151; Begin to Fight, D. H. SMITH, 481
Hutchins, President, on Democracy's Need for a Community of Ideas and Ideals, 117

Illiteracy—Fact and Fiction, M. A. SEIDENFELD, 330
Imperatives for the Peace Makers, A. J. LIEN, 145
Individual-Instruction, What Has Become of the, Movement, R. B. DEAN, 164
Institute on War and Postwar Problems of Youth Migration, C. A. DONAHUE, 47

Interallied Bureau, A Proposed, for Educational Reconstruction, 301
Inter-American: Calling Teachers of English, 23; A New Educational Program for Indians in Peru, 87; Days in Kansas City, L. I. PERRIGO, 95; Scholarships in Health and Engineering, 118; Understanding Latin America, W. G. BOWLING, 124; Good Neighborliness in Practice, 340; Institutes in the United States, O. H. DEMING, 350; Program in Education, H. E. DAVIS, 433; A New Service of the Department of State, 437; The Latin-American Problem, R. C. JONES, 441
International, Relations Office of the ALA, 36; Bureau of Education, 1941–42, 69; Education Assembly Launches an Important Program, 228; Universities, C. O. ARNDT, 370; A Proposal for an, White Cross, 495
Inter-Society Constitutional Convention, A. I. BRYAN, 13
IQ, Mental Discipline and the, Controversy, H. G. JOHNSON, 200; Does the, Vary with Achievement Tests, E. C. ABBOTT, 381
ISRAELI, N., Education for Planning, 394

JAARSMA, C., "Education between Two Worlds," 334
John L. Elliott Institute of Human Relations, 136
JOHNSON, D., Fire Dangers of Winter Heating of School and College Buildings, 504
JOHNSON, H. G., Mental Discipline and the IQ Controversy, 200
JOHNSON, W. H., The Place of the Negro in the Social Studies, Chicago Public Schools, 283
JONES, R. C., The Latin-American Problem, 441
JORDAN, E. L., Academic Freedom in Germany, 187

KANDEL, I. L., Motes and Beams, 345
KDP Announces New Laureate Members for 1943 and Its Lectures for 1944, 35
Kefauver, The State Department Appoints Dean, Educational Consultant, 467
Keppel, Frederick Paul, 1875–1943, 202
KIRKPATRICK, F. H., Proposed Educational Adjustment, 426
KLAPPER, P., Education for Today and Tomorrow, 214
KNIGHT, E. W., "The 'Messianic' Invasion of the South": Dr. Knight Replies, 107
KNIGHT, F. B., City Youths and Country Farms, 1
KRUSÉ, S. A., The Late Charles A. McMurry Met the "Acid Test" of the Master Teacher, 171

Labor, Wayne University Announces a Program for, 406
LANCELOT, W. H., A Close-Up of the Eight-Year Study, 449
LAWSON, D. E., Some Advantages of Abolishing the Grading System, 210
LEBOUTILLIER, C., Ethics and Religion: How Related?, 131
LEEVY, J. R., Wartime Adaptations in Sociology, 458
Legacy of the Great, R. WITHINGTON, 114
Legislation (proposed): Recent Educational Activities on Capitol Hill, 362; The "Recommitment" of Senate Bill 637, 387
"Lend-Lease," An Educational, Program Proposed, 403
LEONARD, E. A., Present Cost of Education in the Four-Year Women's Colleges, 174; The Aims of Higher Education for Women in the United States, 295
Letter to His Son, C. H. SACKETT, 377
Liberal Arts,—Chaos in Education, F. K. ELDER, 241; A Bright Future Prophesied for, College, 229; Ordway Tead on the Future of the, College, 436
Library, The School, in Wartime, H. L. BUTLER, 217; Regional, Service in East Tennessee, H. M. HARRIS, 462
LIEN, A. J., Imperatives for the Peace-Makers, 145
LUCKIESH, M., and ANON., Was the Liquidation of the NYA Justified?—Two Affirmative Answers, 142

McMahon, Francis E., The Dismissal of, from Notre Dame University, 451
McMurry, Charles A., The Late, Met the "Acid Test" of the Master Teacher, S. A. KRUSÉ, 171
MALOTT, M., "Self-Aids in English Usage," 311
Man's Need for Immortality, and Modern Thought, R. F. CREEGAN, 61
MARVIN, C. H., Destruction of Learning, 473
Mathematics, A Report Soon to Be Issued on the, Needed by Inductees, 182
MEDYNSKY, E., Wartime Pedagogy in the Soviet Union, 14; Progress in the Education of Teachers in the Soviet Union, 478
MELVIN, A. G., The Will to Misunderstand "Progressive" Education, 460
Mental Discipline and the IQ Controversy, H. G. JOHNSON, 200
Message to the Senior Class, R. PULLIAM, 236
MESSENGER, J. F., Postwar Education, 292
Messianic, In Defense of a, Invasion of Conquered Countries, 76; Invasion of the South: Dr. Knight Replies, E. W. KNIGHT, 107; The International Education Assembly Launches an Important Program, 228; When Is an "Educational Invasion" of Conquered Countries, 363
METCALFE, L. S., Slidefilms, 333
Mind Not Used Is a Mind Abused: A Message to Graduates, R. L. WILBUR, 81
Mission of American Liberal Scholarship in the New World Order, H. M. DATER, 248
MLAA, The Commission on Trends in Education of the, 339
MORRIS, E. H., Living–Earning–Winning, 90
MORT, P. R., A New Type of School Survey, 46
MULFORD, H. B., Wanted: A Fresh Factual Study of the American School Board, 281
Music Education in Wartime, E. G. HESSER, 9
Myth of Nordic-Aryan-"Herrenvolk" Superiority, W. C. BAGLEY, 172

National Conference of Teacher Examiners, 390
Navy V-12 Program, The Second Nation-Wide Test for the ASTP and the, 252
NCE Fills Membership Vacancies by Mail Ballot, 157
NEA at Indianapolis, B. FARLEY, 17; Assumes a New and Important Responsibility, 99; Is the, Seeking Support on an Unjustifiable Basis, F. E. SPAULDING, 170; Policies Announced by the, Commission for the Defense of Democracy, 276
NEA'S, Some Comments on, "Wartime Handbook for Education," E. H. REEDER, 28
Negro: "Education for Production": Theme of a Georgia Workshop, 53; Toward the Improvement of, -White Relations, 229; The Place of the, in the Social Studies, Chicago Public Schools, W. H. JOHNSON, 283
Negroes, Equalizing Public Education for, in Tennessee, G. W. GORE, JR., 11

Negro's Contribution to Democracy Depicted in a Hampton Mural, 35
New York Colleges in Wartime, J. S. ALLEN, 428
New Zealand Educational Institute Celebrates Its Diamond Jubilee, 102
North Carolina: The 150th Anniversary of the First State-University Building, 299
Norway: Oslo's University Professors Deadlock Quisling Demands, 438
Nurses, Committee on Recruitment of Student, 365; A Report on the Recruitment of Student, 469
NYA, Is the "Liquidation" of the, Both a Protest and a Portent?, 21

Olivet College, A New Program for Younger Students at, 255
OLSEN, E. G., Teacher-Education for Community Study, 414
150th Anniversary of the First State-University Building, 299
Oslo University Professors Deadlock Quisling Demands, 438

PARKER, W. W., Perplexides Tells Simplicus about Education in Occupied Countries, 74; Perplexides, Simplicus Discourse on Artes Liberales, 235
Peace, Education for Permanent, H. S. CURTIS, 33; More and Better Education, Our Greatest Hope for, C. S. VAN DEUSEN, 41; Effective Education for All an Imperative in the People's, A. SAMUELSON, 198; A Clarifying Analysis of the Problems of Education and World, 388; Who Should Make the, H. L. PICKETT, 425; A Note on Education for Permanent, H. S. CURTIS, 505
PEI, M. A., The Function of Languages in Global War, 401
PEISER, W., The Educational Failure of the Weimar Republic, 289
PERGLER, C., Portland and the Times Test, 461
Perplexides, Tells Simplicus about Education in Occupied Countries, W. W. PARKER, 74; and Simplicus Discourse on Artes Liberales, W. W. PARKER, 235
PERRIGO, L. I., Inter-American Days in Kansas City, 95
Peru, A New Educational Program for Indians in, 87
Philosophy, A Commission on the Function of, in Liberal Education, 362
PICKETT, H. L., Who Should Make the Peace?, 425
Pi Lambda Theta, The Thirteenth Biennial Council of, 99; Awards for Research, 437
Population–Mobility, A Note on the Educational Consequences of, K. W. BIGELOW, 75
Portuguese, The Teaching of, Spreads to the Secondary School, 467
Postwar: Education Mobilizes Its Midwest Forces, 5; Training for Military Government in the Conquered Countries, 5; More on Bifocals, C. R. HICKS, 30; Will the Shortage of Teachers be a, Problem?, 68; New Developments Predicted for, Education in Britain, 69; In Defense of a "Messianic Invasion" of Conquered Countries, 76; A Mind Not Used Is a Mind Abused: A Message to Graduates, R. L. WILBUR, 81; Guaranteeing "Freedom from Want" in Part an Educational Problem, 84; American Aid in Foreign-Library Rehabilitation Urged by the ALA, 85; The Fight for Freedom, 87; Living-Earning-Winning, E. H. MORRIS, 90; Princeton Plans for the, Education of Men now in Service, 135; Imperatives for the Peace-Makers, A. J. LIEN, 145; Pupil Experience in Axis Countries, G. A. COE, 177; Democracy's Children, G. H. DEER, 188; An Important Inter-State Conference at the University of Wyoming, 254; Conference on Science, Philosophy, and Religion, 268; Education, J. F. MESSENGER, 292; President H. C. Dale on, Problems of the State Universities, 299; A Proposed "Interallied Bureau for Educational Reconstruction," 301; Should We Take Over Their Schools?, S. M. COREY, 321; The AAUW to Promote Good Will toward Our Allies, 323; Motes and Beams, I. L. KANDEL, 345; When Is an "Educational Invasion" of Conquered Countries "Messianic"?, 363; Louisiana Plans, Advances in the Certification of Teachers, 364; International Universities, C. O. ARNDT, 370; Proposals for the Reconstruction of Education in the Axis Countries, 379; A Resolution on, Education by the CDSGS, 390; Association of American Universities, R. WALTERS, 397; An Educational "Lend-Lease" Program Proposed, 403; Effective Teaching in a, World, E. E. EMME, 415; Proposed Educational Adjustment, F. H. KIRKPATRICK, 426; State Department Appoints Dean Kefauver Educational Consultant, 467; Co-operative Commission on Teacher Education Plans Meeting, 468; The American Vocational Association in Chicago, 494; A Proposal for an "International White Cross," 495
Pre-Flight, The CAA Offers, Examinations for High-School Pupils, 277
Price-Control Program, Teachers Urged to Support the, 276
Progressive Education: Let's Not Throw Out the Baby with the Bath, F. A. SHAW, 123; A Close-Up of the Eight-Year Study, W. H. LANCELOT, 449; Will to Misunderstand, A. G. MELVIN, 460
Progressivism, Should the "Progressives" Give Up Their, for the Duration?, 325
Protestant Unity, A Notable Movement toward, 22
Public Relations, Higher Education Needs Militant, R. F. HARLOW, 65; College, and the War, E. D. WHITTLESEY, 385
Public-School, An Interim Report on, Statistics for 1941–42, 497
Publicity, Amazing, C. BENGTSON, 262
PULLIAM, R., Message to the Senior Class, 236
Punishment, Attitudes toward War and Capital, as to Size of Community, M. SMITH, 220
PUNKE, H. H., High-School Youth and Family Quarrels, 507

Quarrels, High-School Youth and Family, H. H. PUNKE, 507

Radio: The CBS "American School of the Air" Returns October 11, 86; A Conference on Safety Education through, at the University of Utah, 101; School-Broadcast Conference, November 28–30, 389; Instructors School—St. Louis University, T. K. FISHER, 443; The Educational, Listing Service, 454
READ, J. M., History versus the Social Sciences, 149
"Reader's Guide to Education," 364
Reading, The Sixth Annual Conference on, at the University of Chicago, 53
REEDER, E. H., Some Comments on NEA'S "Wartime Handbook for Education," 28
REICHMANN, F., The Subject Union Catalogue, "Americana Germanica," 372

Religion, Ethics and: How Related?, C. LEBOUTILLIER, 131; A Note on the Relation of, to Ethics, A. B. WOLFE, 262; Professor Sisson on, J. P. WILLIAMS, 285; What Matthew Arnold Said about, W. B. THOMAS, 396
Religious Education, and National Welfare, E. O. SISSON, 92; A New Proposal for, in England, 159; What Is, P. H. BUCHHOLZ, 286
Research, Students Gain Experience through Projects in, 22
Responsible Co-operation, W. H. COWLEY, 113
Retirement at 65, P. HAENSEL, 395
ROBINSON, E. A., The Stanford Conference on the Humanities, 151
ROBINSON, F. P., Study Skills of Soldiers in ASTP, 398
ROUCEK, J. S., Education's Role Now and in the Future, 378
RUEDIGER, W. C., That Two-Year Degree, 92; "Three Score and Ten," 346

SACKETT, C. H., A Letter to His Son, 377
SACKETT, E. B., The Quality of ASTP Men, 318
Safety Education, A Conference on, through Radio at the University of Utah, 101; The AATC and the NSC Co-operate to Promote, 275; Fire Dangers of Winter Heating of School and College Buildings, D. JOHNSON, 504
SAMUELSON, A., Effective Education for All an Imperative in the People's Peace, 198
Scholar as Authority, C. F. ARROWOOD, 141
Scholarship, The Katharine L. Sharp, 405
Scholarships, Inter-American, in Health and Engineering, 118; Available for "New-Plan" Students—University of Chicago, 405; Fellowships and, Awarded Students from Abroad, 421; for Non-Academic Workers at the University of Minnesota, M. FRYCKBERG, 445; Seven Eastern Women's Colleges Will Offer National, 453
SCHOOL AND SOCIETY, Again "In the Red"—Temporarily, It Is Hoped, 20; An Apology for Errors in a Recent "Event," 68; A Suggestion to Our Readers, 116; A Message to the Friends of, 156; Views of Readers Regarding Editorial Policies and Problems, 204
School Board, Wanted: A Fresh Factual Study of the American, H. B. MULFORD, 281; Proposals for the In-Service Education of, Members, 435; An Old Manual for, Members—Still Useful, R. D. CHADWICK, 505
School-Broadcast Conference, November 28–30, 389
Schools Can Help Win, H. S. TUTTLE, 129
SCHULLIAN, D. M., College Slang, 169
Science Talent Search, The Third Nation-Wide, 205
SEASHORE, C. E., An Educational Decalog, 353
Secondary-School, When Did the Upswing in, Enrollment Begin?, 300; Are There "Essential," Subjects?, 419
SEIDENFELD, M. A., Illiteracy—Fact and Fiction, 330
SHAW, F. A., Let's Not Throw Out the Baby with the Bath, 123
SHOEMAKER, W. R., When Are High-School Courses "College-Preparatory"?, 212
Should We Take Over Their Schools?, S. M. COREY, 321
SISSON, E. O., Religious Education and National Welfare, 92; "Violent and Unfair," 310
Slidefilms, L. S. METCALFE, 333
SMITH, D. H., The Humanities Begin to Fight, 481
SMITH, M., Attitudes toward War and Capital Punishment as to Size of Community, 220
SNAVELY, G. E., The Survival of the Colleges, 502
Social Sciences, Fellowships and Other Grants Offered in the, 326
Social-Studies, Resource Units, 229; The Place of the Negro in the, Chicago Public Schools, W. H. JOHNSON, 283
Soviet Union, Wartime Pedagogy in the, E. MEDYNSKY, 14; Report from the Reopened Kalinin Pedagogical Institute, 37; Progress in the Education of Teachers in the, E. MEDYNSKY, 478
Spanish, Fellowship Awards for, -Speaking Students in the Southwest, 406
SPAULDING, F. E., Is the NEA Seeking Support on an Unjustifiable Basis?, 170
STARR, M., The Relation of the Labor Unions to Adult Education in Britain, 109
State Universities of Ohio Lose Another President (Athens), 100
STEINBERG, C. S., The Use of Radio in Education, 77
STRANG, R., Recommendations of the Council of Guidance and Personnel Associations, 110
STRAYER, G. D., Education in a Time of Crisis, 97
"Streamlined" Bachelor's Degree, F. E. BOLTON, 193
STUMPF, W. A., On Mr. Fraser's Defense of the Times Test, 348

Teacher, Some Freshmen Describe the Desirable College, W. W. HAGGARD, 238; Creed of a Prospective, C. O. WILLIAMS, 332; Louisiana Plans Postwar Advances in, Certification, 364; National Conference of, Examiners, 390; -Education for Community Study, E. G. OLSEN, 414; The AATC Addresses a Resolution to the AAU on, -Education, 420; Co-operative Commission on, Education Plans Meeting, 468
Teacher-Shortage, The, May Reach 90,000 by September, 2; Placement of 1942 Teacher-Training Graduates, C. P. ARCHER, 63; Will the, be a Postwar Problem?, 68; and the Teacher's "Chronological Age," 203
Teachers, A Prize Contest for Elementary-School, 159; An Important Conference on the Education of, 180; –119 of Them–Lose Jobs in Chicago's City Colleges, 203; A New Plan for the Education of, at the University of Colorado, H. R. DOUGLASS, 216; Better Selection of Better, 404
TEAD, O., Words and Deeds, 225
TEMPLEMAN, W. D., A Challenge about the Teaching of English in Secondary Schools, 264
Tenure, Minnesota City School Superintendents to Have, Rights, 36
THOMAS, W. B., What Matthew Arnold Said about Religion, 396
"Three Score and Ten," W. C. RUEDIGER, 346
Traveling, Exhibits of the Division of Graphic Arts, 181; Eastward, N. W. DOUGHERTY, 337
TUTTLE, H. S., The Schools Can Help Win, 129

University of Southern California's New Plan, 453

VAN DEUSEN, C. S., More and Better Education, Our Greatest Hope for Peace, 41
Veterans, The University of Illinois Plans for Returning, 181
Visual Education: Slidefilms, L. S. METCALFE, 333
Vocational Technical Education, A Consulting Committee on, 338
VON HOFE, H., Intensive Language Study at the University of Southern California, 430

WALTERS, R., Engineer-Educators Hold Their 50th Annual Meeting, 12; President Zook Reports on the Activities of the ACE, 94; Association of American Universities, 397; Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges, 1943, 484

War: A Report from the Reopened Kalinin (USSR) Pedagogical Institute, 37; Educational Opportunities for Australian Soldiers, 54; Secretary Stimson on Military Drill in Schools and Colleges, 68; Responsible Co-operation, W. H. COWLEY, 113; American Education and "Preparedness" for the Global, 118; Practical Education in Food Conservation, 159; A Report Soon to Be Issued on the Mathematics Needed by Inductees, 182; Attitudes toward, and Capital Punishment as to Size of Community, M. SMITH, 220; College Public Relations and the, E. D. WHITTLESEY, 385; Function of Languages in Global, M. A. PEI, 401; Youth and, Work, W. C. DAVIS, 410; Oslo University Professors Deadlock Quisling Demands, 438; Destruction of Learning, C. H. MARVIN, 473; President Dodds Praises the Army-Navy College-Training Programs, 496

Wartime, Music Education in, E. G. HESSER, 9; Pedagogy in the Soviet Union, E. MEDYNSKY, 14; Dr. Kandel on the Functions of the Humanities in, Education, 20; Some Comments on NEA'S, Handbook for Education, E. H. REEDER, 28; Adult Education in, Britain, F. A. CAVENAGH, 49; The School Library in, H. L. BUTLER, 217; Teachers Urged to Support the Price-Control Program, 276; New York Colleges in, J. S. ALLEN, 428; Adaptations in Sociology, J. R. LEEVY, 458; The Unique Services of the Women's Colleges in, W. W. BOND, 474

Weimar Republic, The Educational Failure of the, W. PEISER, 289

WESTINGTON, M. M., The Present Status of the Classics in the Higher Institutions, 308

WHITTLESEY, E. D., College Public Relations and the War, 385

Widening the World's Horizons, R. A. BUTLER, 417

WILBUR, R. L., A Mind Not Used Is a Mind Abused: A Message to Graduates, 81

WILLIAMS, C. O., Creed of a Prospective Teacher, 332

WILLIAMS, J. P., Professor Sisson on "Religion," 285

WITHERS, A. M., The "First-Name" Mania, 27; The Folly of Sealing English in a Modern Vacuum, 260; War on "Language Teaching Goes to War," 346

WITHINGTON, R., The Legacy of the Great, 114; Bunk and Bunker Hill, 305; A Comment on "Moses and the Ten Commandments," 426

WOLFE, A. B., A Note on the Relation of Religion to Ethics, 262

Women, The Aims of Higher Education for, in the United States, E. A. LEONARD, 295

Women's, The Unique Services of the, Colleges in Wartime, W. W. BOND, 474

Words and Deeds, O. TEAD, 225

Workshop, "Education for Production": Theme of a Georgia, 53

Workshops, Educational, Maintain Their Popularity, 85

World Government Day, the 3d Annual Observance of Armistice Day as, 230

Youth, The Institute on War and Postwar Problems of, Migration, C. A. DONAHUE, 47; Allied, Inc., 230; and the Future, H. M. BELL, 314; and War Work, W. C. DAVIS, 410

BOOKS REVIEWED

BACON, F. L., The War and America, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

BERKSON, I. B., Education Faces the Future, 214 (P. KLAPPER)

BROWN, W. B., M. S. STEWART, and W. E. MYER, America in a World at War, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

CURTI, M., The Growth of American Thought, 476 (I. L. GORDON)

DOWNS, R. B., Resources of New York City Libraries, 312 (W. W. BRICKMAN); Union Catalogs in the United States, 312 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

Education in Wartime and After. By School of Education Faculty, Stanford University, 378 (J. S. ROUCEK)

GOSLIN, R. A., O. P. GOSLIN, and H. F. STOREN, American Democracy Today and Tomorrow, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

HENRY, E. A. (editor), Doctoral Dissertations Accepted by American Universities, 1941–1942, 312 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

HIRSHBERG, H. S., Subject Guide to Reference Books, 312 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

HUSBAND, R. W., C. SHRODES, and J. VAN GUNDY, Psychology through Literature: An Anthology, 143 (H. R. BECKER)

JOHNSON, H., The Other Side of Main Street: A History Teacher from Sauk Center, 44 (W. C. BAGLEY)

KANDEL, I. L., The Cult of Uncertainty, 349 (H. H. HORNE)

MACLATCHY, J. H. (editor), Education on the Air, 77 (C. S. STEINBERG)

MEIKLEJOHN, A., Education between Two Worlds, 334 (C. JAARSMA)

MYER, W. E., W. B. BROWN, and M. S. STEWART, America in a World at War, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

MYERS, A. F., and C. O. WILLIAMS, Education in a Democracy: An Introduction to the Study of Education (revised), 93 (C. BARLIEB)

O'ROURKE, L. J., Self-Aids in English Usage, 311 (M. MALOTT)

PEGG, C. H., et al, American Society and the Changing World, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

PENDELL, E. (editor), Society under Analysis: An Introduction to Sociology, 191 (J. H. BUNZEL)

SHRODES, C., J. VAN GUNDY, and R. W. HUSBAND, Psychology through Literature: An Anthology, 143 (H. R. BECKER)

STEWART, M. S., W. E. MYER, and W. B. BROWN, America in a World at War, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

STOREN, H. F., R. A. GOSLIN, and O. P. GOSLIN, American Democracy Today and Tomorrow, 412 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

WHYTE, J., American Words and Ways, Especially for German-Americans, 93 (L. BRYSON)

WINCHELL, C. M., Reference Books of 1938–1940, 312 (W. W. BRICKMAN)